to ship out beef cattle from Dundee on the 20th.

The impression prevails among shippers the impression prevaits among snippers that there will be an enormous run of beef cattle from the Territory between now and August. Texas, too, will keep her lick up in the movement line. Prices now are satisfactory, and there is no immediate danger of a decline of any importance.

Montana and the Northwest are now placing large shipments of beeves east, and the run from that section of Uncle Sam's domain will from now on be quite steady.

Very little trading was done at either of the yards yesterday, though several buyers were at both. The Drovers' Journal, Chicago, says The packers are now said to have agreed not to move their plants for ten years, also to turn over 1999 acres of their Tolleston tract to the Union stockyards and transit ompany.
